

Elective OB Ultrasound Consent

Durango Ultrasound offers OB “Fun Pics”, ultrasound images for expectant mothers and family.

We are happy to share these images with you and wish for you to have a clear expectation of this scan.

An elective ultrasound is for entertainment purposes only, we will be documenting non diagnostic (fun) images of your baby. This exam will not be interpreted by a physician. Durango Ultrasound and its practitioners will not be held responsible in any way for abnormalities observed or not observed in your baby in this exam. We may or may not be able to determine baby gender at time of scan.

Durango Ultrasound requires a previous complete (18-20+ week) OB have been performed by a licensed health care provider prior to this elective scan.

Please review and sign the consent form below prior to your elective ultrasound.

- 1) I give consent for the elective OB ultrasound to performed at Durango Ultrasound.
- 2) I understand this service is for entertainment purposes only and is non-diagnostic.
- 3) The sex of the baby may or may not be determined due various factors, including position of baby, gestational age, maternal body habitus, fetal environment/AFI and other contributing factors.
- 4) I am currently under the care of a licensed OB provider and have had a previous anatomic survey ultrasound of this pregnancy at 18-20+ weeks.
- 5) I will not hold Durango Ultrasound and its practitioners liable for any negative outcomes regarding this elective scan.
